

Sara Fattahi

Biography:

Born in Damascus, 1983, she Studied Law at Damascus University, and a graduate of Adham Ismail "Fine art Institute in Damascus". Between 2003 and 2008, she was working as a painter, storyboard artist & animator for many channels such as SpaceToon. Between 2008 and 2011, she worked as an art director for soap-operas and TV ads.

In 2010 she started working to produce and direct her documentary films independently. She finished her first short documentary 27 Meters in 2013.

Since 2014, She collaborates in research and writing for independent short film projects.

COMA her first feature long documentary, produced in 2015, was granted the Regard Neuf Award for the Best First Feature Film at Visions du Réel 2015, And lately the (FIPRESCI Award), the International Association of Film Critics for best first film at the Viennale 2015.